

Something Fishy?

say the least. The latest kaiten (conveyor belt) sushi restaurant chain to hit the Klang Valley is determined to dispel the notion that children dislike sushi. Mouth-watering sets are served on custom-designed plates that are as captivating as the food they hold; for example, Aeroplane (RM12.90) – replete with wings – comprises of California mini, tamago sushi (Japanese egg omelette), ebi sushi (cooked prawn), yakitori (grilled chicken skewers) and French fries. All meals are served with Vitagen. And be sure to order the mini daifuku (RM7.90), which are chilled mochi (rice cakes) filled with assorted ice cream flavours.

For reservations or more information, contact Sakae Sushi, Bangsar Village II, 2F-26/27, 2nd Floor, Bangsar Village II, 2, Jalan Telawi 1, Bangsar Baru, 59100 Kuala Lumpur; T +603 2287 1535. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

The Kids' Menu at Sakae Sushi is mighty impressive, to Japanese fare for the little ones served on a fire engine (background) and the Shinkansen (bullet train).

restaurants

.....

If deciding where to eat is a constant struggle, look no further than these child-friendly eateries.

Kids Eat for Free

Chili's certainly champion good value when it comes to family dining. The restaurant offers one free kid's meal for children below 13 with every main course ordered. Children can choose from nine options including Little Chicken Crispers (RM6.45), which are tender fillets of chicken deep-fried in crispy batter served with home-style fries, and the Pepper Pals Kraft Macaroni & Cheese (RM6.45). What's more, children will also be given a Pepper Pals activity sheet with word puzzles and connect-the-dots diagrams to keep them entertained. Be sure to share a heavenly Molten Chocolate Cake (RM19.35) before you leave.

Reservations are not accepted. For more information, contact Chili's Bangsar, G10 Bangsar Shopping Complex, Jalan Maarof, Bukit Bandaraya, 59100 Kuala Lumpur; T +603 2092 2023. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Note: Service and tax charges apply for the aforementioned restaurants.

Little Chicken Crispers.